All of these countries are coming up except Kenya. Gration was appointed in 2011, so presumably will be done in 2015.

[REDACTED] followed up with me on her interest in serving as COM.

Below is the list of countries she's most interested in. I know at least one of these is spoken for. Are any of the others possibilities?

Thx

Cheryl,

I met with [] today and walked through this list. We expanded her interest beyond just Asia, and countries of interest include (I noted which are currently political v. fso):

B6

Albania -- FSO
Ethiopia - political
Iceland -- FSO
Indonesia - FSO
Kenya - political
Laos - FSO
Malaysia (top choice) -- FSO
Namibia -- FSO
Nepal (top choice) -- FSO
Philippines (top choice) -- FSO
Singapore (top choice) - political
Slovak Republic -- political
Slovenia -- FSO
Zambia -- FSO

Also, in reviewing her resume before our meeting again, I thought of the PDAS role in CSO (though I know we may want to eventually have a FSO in that role). I mentioned it to her and she seemed interested in pursuing it further if we thought it was a good fit. She knows [] well, but her main hesitation is that she [] fears this would be a step down. Let me know if you think she'd be a good candidate and if so, I will talk with [] about her. I attached her resume here.

Hope the trip is going well.

Thx

Heather

I would share w/ her that countries coming open in Asia that are potentially available for a political appt (which means exclude Hong Kong).

What would that list look like?

Based on my convo with her a couple weeks ago, I think Singapore will be her first choice.
